

God's Wonderful World

Welcome!

Worship for All

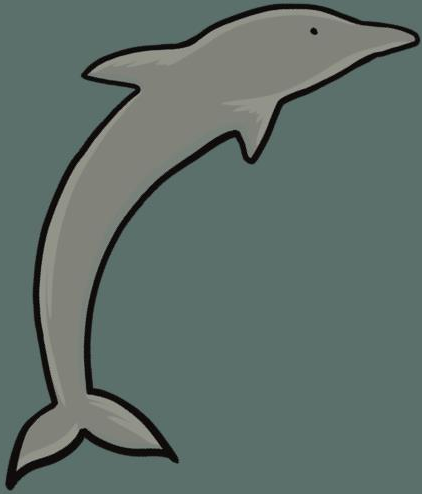

[ALL:] The earth is the Lord's
and everything in it!

[LEADER:] So we bring it all to you,
today, God.

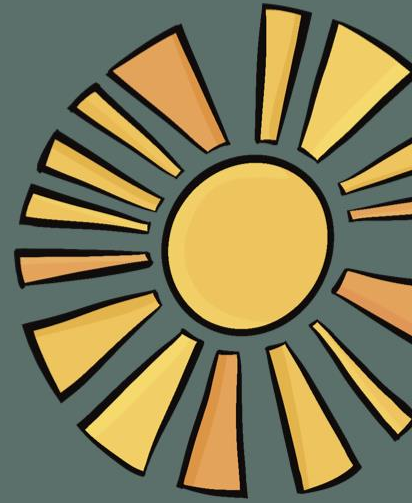

The earth is the Lord's
and everything in it!

The wiggly worms,
the majestic eagles,
the leaping dolphins,
the snarling lions.

The earth is the Lord's
and everything in it!

The deepest oceans,
the furthest galaxies,
the wildest jungles,
the streets where we live.

The earth is the Lord's
and everything in it!

Our biggest triumphs,
our most shameful failures,
every creature and habitat,
every person, even us here.

The earth is the Lord's
and everything in it!

So we bring it all
to you, today, God.
Amen.

Come, now is the time to worship
Come, now is the time to give your

Come, just as you are before your God

Come

One day every tongue will confess
You are God

One day every knee will bow

Still the greatest treasure remains for those

Who gladly choose You now

Places in Creation

- Somewhere really high up?
- Somewhere really Beautiful?
- Somewhere in nature that felt Scary?
- What is the most exciting animal that you've seen?
- Which place in Nature that makes you feel Calm?
- What aspect of God's world do you find awe-inspiring?

[LEADER] Rewind, back to the beginning,
no birds tweeting, no earth spinning.
Formless, nothing, 'til the day
God's Word and Spirit combined to say:

Genesis 1:1-2:3 (paraphrase)

Somehow there was water, but it had no limits,
so God had to set some boundaries within it.
Once evening and morning had sailed on by
he divided heaven and earth with the cry:

Once evening and morning had sailed on by
he divided heaven and earth with the cry:

“SKY!”

And there was sky.
It was a good sky,
it was from God.

Then God reached out his creative hand
to pull back the sea, revealing land.
He wanted to see diverse vegetation
food and colour for every generation:

And there were plants.
They were good plants,

Now God wanted rhythms, days and nights,
seasons and patterns, shadows and lights.
So he set the stars and the moon in place
and he called with joy and delight on his face:

God looked at the waters and looked at the sky,
he imagined sea creatures and things that fly,
all shades of colour, both huge and small,
and each appeared as he smiled and called:

creatures and critters of every kind,
tame and friendly, wild and wondrous,
at his voice there appeared in abundance:

All God made, it was very, very good.
There were trees for shelter and plants for food.

God blessed that day, and with a whisper declared:
